Blood Donation Camp

The Institute is organizing a Blood Donation Camp in association with Indian Red Cross Society on Monday, 19th March 2018. Red Cross promotes the Humanitarian values, which encourage respect for other human beings and a willingness to work together to find solutions to problems. From the seven fundamental principles, the movement aims to influence the behaviour of all the people. The Indian Red Cross is a pioneer in the field of blood services and one of the largest voluntary blood banks in India since 1962. IRCS regularly conducts motivational campaigns to organize Voluntary Blood Donation Camps. It has more than 100 blood banks all over the country under different states and district branches. Medical team from supporting Hospitals shall conduct the camp from 10:00am to 4:00 pm in Room No 11(Ground Floor). The Donors will be given refreshments on the spot. Interested students, faculty and staff shall make themselves available as per their convenience.

Kindly support the cause to “Make a Mark in Someone’s Life”.
